

Additional Resources & Assignments

3 Assignments for the month of May

*With all material below, we are not so much looking for total alignment, agreement, or assent. We are more interested in your interaction with the content, your honest convictions, and how you envision yourself bringing your opinions into the session and the shepherding of our particular people.

- Vision & Future of Redeemer (Interact with the material and ask the question along the way: “Am I on board with this?”)
- The Six Way Fracturing of Evangelicalism (What are your thoughts on this article and have you seen this fracturing at Redeemer? How do you plan to lead in the midst of that? How can Redeemer grow in our elasticity?)

Read/Watch & Summarize one of your choice, allowing this question to guide what we are looking for in your response: “How will this or how would I like this material to inform my leadership at Redeemer?”

1. The Whole Christ — Dr. Sinclair Ferguson
2. Ted Lasso Season 1
3. Free At Last — Dr. Carl Ellis
4. Lead — Dr. Paul David Tripp
5. Leading With A Limp — Dr. Dan Allender
6. In The Name — Henry Nouwen

No action required on the resources below. This is just further content on the role of Teaching Elder. Four of the most influential resources that have shaped how I think about the role of pastor are listed below:

The Pastor: A Memoir — Eugene Peterson

Lessons From Forty Years In Ministry — Sinclair Ferguson

Strengthening The Soul of Your Ministry — Ruth Barton

The Work of The Pastor — William Still
